RESPONSIVE PSALM 107:1-7

L: O give thanks to the Lord, who is good, whose steadfast love endures for ever!

P: Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom the Lord has redeemed from trouble and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

L: Some wandered in the desert wastes, finding no way to a city in which to dwell;

P: hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted within them.

L: Then in their trouble, they cried to the Lord, who delivered them from their distress,

P: and led them by a straight way, till they reached a city in which to dwell.

Circle of Prayer

Across the Susquehanna and Upper New York Conferences, we continue nurturing a culture of prayer that grounds our life and mission. As part of this commitment, we are expanding a Susquehanna initiative—the Circle of Prayer—to the entire episcopal area. Through this weekly rhythm, congregations and our Camp & Retreat Centers lift one another before God in intentional, sustained prayer.

November 1 - Session 07: Crafting a Rule of Life
Transformation is possible, but it's not inevitable. Learn how to build an intentional plan, or what the early Christians called a "Rule of Life": a schedule and a set of practices and relational rhythms that create space for us to be with Jesus, become like him, and do as he did practice: Craft a personalized Rule of Life.

The United Women in Faith will meet at the church on November 3rd at 6:30 p.m. We will be making soup and collecting our Thank offering boxes.

CHURCH MISSIONS

Our "Mission Focus" project for November is Heifer International. Heifer International for more than 75 years has helped more than 36.7 million families build sustainable farming businesses to support their families. Their mission is to end hunger and poverty in a sustainable way by supporting and investing alongside local farmers and their communities.

This year we will again be participating in the "Living Gift Market" program. This will be fun project for all. The list below shows the items available for donations.
